Your comments are spot-on, but what you must realise is.....the media (ie) Keevens, Traynor, McNee etc always refer to our manager AS Mr.Strachan, they refer to Walter Smith as 'Watty'.

Paranoia is tagged to Celtic supporters but never to any other team, let alone Rangers.

Walter Smith is an old hand at dealing with the press, the day after the incident he had Novo apologising in the 'Daily Ranger',,,sympathy vote, he stated the tackle merited a red card etc...

Do you recall the Caldwood tackle at Rugby Park? It merited over 3 days coverage!!!

We have to just accept that 'they' rarely receive bad press...we cannot change things overnight...unless the entire staff of Monklands District Council are elected onto, radio clyde, real radio, scotland, press, media etc.
