
This weks Old firm Game

Well lads, paranoia is kicking in again, unfortunately whilst lying in the bath earlier, the radio was tuned to 'Hugh am a tim honest' Keevins.. and his apprentice Andy 'wee hugh' Walker.

All the talk was of 'stats', nogoals, no points, etc and all these huns crawling out from under thistle and clyde scarves voicing their opinion.

Topic? Should the league be extended to accomodate huns 'if' they reach UEFA final???

Hugh says it wont happen as gers wil wrap up league ASAP....

I recall Celtic asking for 24 hours extra to recover from their semi tie with Boavista in 2003....what was the outcome?

Big eck sympathised BUT said he wished his team were fighting for honours come the end of the season..BUT he wasn't for giving us an extra 24 hours rest (we won 2-1 anyhow)

We have to win AND win well to make Watty n co think twice before their next visit...but I fear Strachan will play it cagey and they will be allowed to settle on the ball and play out for a draw.

We need to ATTACK from the offset, I would play a back 3 of Caldwell / Balde / McManus, leave out naylor, play 5 in midfield (mcgeady , hartley ,robson, naka , hinkel)

Tell big Jan you're getting 50 mins go and burst a gut, play mcdonald beside him, use Samaras after 50 mins regardless of the score, attack their weak , old, aging defence hope am right and we collect 3 points as their next league game is against us again.....then they have a few tricky ones...so fingers crossed

Very similar team to what should have been played even at ibrox this was my choice then and you can check on here to verify should be same tonight but you and I know it won't be

Team Boruc

Caldwell Balde McManus

Hinkel Brown Hartley Robson Mcgeady

Samaras JVOH

:laugh: fellow bhoys, I have the luxury of writing this after the event.

It seems the wee man got his selection correct at last, although the substitution was a strange one considering they had 10 men on the park...it may have been better to go to 3 at back at this time..but it worked JVOH, not a favourite of mine and many bhoys did it for us.

They lost the plot and now looks like the serial dater, betty ugly and papa wier miss the next old firm game unless the SFA come up with some grand master hidden act to allow them back, this will now be followed no doubts by an extended season ??.

we did it we are back in the game and require to keep winning and hope they collapse now.

hail hail,

I disagree that he got his selection right,it a wonder goal to break them down before that it was same old story naka playing 5 yard passes and mcgeady running down blind alley with no final ball.His change to 3 front men was done out of blind panic(you can ask why he didn't do this in previous games that we needed to win).We also lost a goal again with the 1st shot they had on target this is happening too often and as for no-one having the bottle to take a penalty against a 1 legged humper is a joke.The only thing WGS is getting right is keeping donatti away from the team and the extra bonus that caldwell is suspended for next game, he makes Olivier Tebily look like Paulo Maldini.

We might beat the huns again but big question is can we win the other 4 games in order to win league I think Dundee Utd will have big part in who wins title

Yes, why has WGS, not had the vision or the balls to attack them or others in previous games. We are Celtic FC, let others be afraid of attacking us.. I was impressed with the fight from Robson..first 50 seconds..the veteran Dailly new he was in an old firm game after the pish he spouted about the last one ?? lets take the game to all teams now..WGS must drop the tactic book..its not working let the guys go out for the club Rangers are not a good team that is clear to any football man.. Dundee Utd hold the cards, lets hope they still need the points when they play them.. all we can do is win every game, the huns will stutter now, games back log players suspensions and injuries...so we need to take it on Naka..well he is a luxury ..it paid off for us but WGS needs to pick the fighters now.

Well once again the SPL have done it again extended season for the teddy's.Hopefully it will be academic as I think the Viola will beat them over 2 legs but its the thought that counts.

Also see Brines admitted he ballsed up with Aberdeen but Celtic defence stopped when whistle blew and would probably not have been a goal anyway and the 2 DOB's who manage them were prob most unhappy and not arseing us up for the huns and not a point for themselves although we did play pish again why oh why donatti in midfield again he is the symptom of most of the bad games we play he has to go ASAP to whoever will take him.

yes the huns are being helped in everyway possible, we can only keep winning hope they bottle it. Our media and SFA are turning the blame on us..it stinks of WE URRRRR THE PEOPLE again, they have stoked the fires for the next old firm game...which in fact they are praying, if they can that is...we cause trouble...i hope we are as noisy as ever and act accordingly.

The league have blundered here in many ways, we all know the history of it now, I cannot imagine if the HUNS and the BHOYS are heading east on the last day both needing to win for the league ??? can you imagine that situation..the HUN in chair of SFA, put his colours to the mast when he became chairman...his comments are coming back to haunt him it stinks lads..

I really hope CELTIC FC act on this..you will notice the only managers to go against it are TIMS..us and Mark Mcghee, all other huns not opening their bought mouths.:angry:
